LABELS

Are you a Biker? A RUB? A Yuppie? Do you ride a riceburner? Are you a Wannabe? I say none of these labels matter in the fight for freedom. Most of us at one time or another find ourselves using labels to describe someone or some group which has differences from us. And generally we use labels in a derogatory manner that's meant to show contempt or at best intolerance. It's easy to do but the harm done isn't worth it.

As CMRO members we know we're in a constant fight to protect and expand our freedoms. We must fight at the local, state and federal levels. To further this fight we need numbers of members and numbers of dollars. Yet sometimes we're the most intolerant of all, and in expressing our negative opinion of something or someone we alienate potential members and allies. A house divided soon falls and we've enough differences that we don't need to emphasize them. Rather, wouldn't it make sense to recruit membership from all brands and ages. Wouldn't it make sense to reach out to those in different social circles to discuss the more important commonalities that we share?

I say no more to labeling riders. I say we need each and everyone who rides a motorcycle to be on the side of Freedom. I say the feeling of riding down the road, cares of the world behind me is too precious to lose and if I can make an ally; I'm going to do it.

Are you?

WAYNE COUNTY CO-COORDINATOR

It's the first of October and the riding season is starting to slow down, unfortunately. There are still plenty of days of riding this fall yet, though. One good thing about fall is the riding you do get in, you get to see some great colors out and about, and I think you get to appreciate the riding time a little more. Well, that's enough of me trying to talk myself into thinking that fall is a good thing, I wish it was June all over again.

The last event we had in Wayne County was Jack's Coat Run for Kids. The weather was not very good and the turn out was poor, but we ended up collecting some coats for People to People, and the folks that showed up had a good time. We will try it next year.

We had our first meeting at the new "Ranch" in town. The place is really nice and bright, not like the old place that was dark. The menu looked the same, as did the prices. There is no smoking so you will need to go outside. They don't have a license to sell alcohol yet, but they are working on it. We will continue to have the meetings at the new Ranch.

We are going to start mailing out meeting reminders again because of the low turn-outs to the meetings. If you would show up to the meetings, we could save a lot of time and money by not needing to send out the reminders. Carlie will be sending those out and she will have more info about what is coming up in the next months.

At the next two meetings we will be nominating people for officer positions for the upcoming year, and then the voting will take place at the Christmas party the first Saturday in December. I think all the county and regional positions will be open this year, so we need some people to step up and help out.

Speaking of the Christmas party, we've started to make plans for it. We will be finishing up with that at the next meeting.

Well, show up at the next meeting and see what all is going on and to check out the new El Rancho Grande. The address is 117 West Liberty in Wooster, and the meeting starts at 7:30. Show up early and grab a bite to eat; the pizza tastes the same as it did.

Carry On
