

This map is intended to show the majority of townships that currently exist or have existed in the past. Especially in urban areas, all or parts of some townships may have been incorporated into cities or villages. Boundaries are based primarily on U.S. Geological Survey and county engineers' maps.